HIS HEAD CUT OFF.

President Carnot's Assassin Legally Executed.

GUILLOTINED THIS MORNING.

The Knife Drops at 4:55 and the Death of France's Recent Ruler Is Avenged So Far as Law Is Concerned—The Assassin Defiant to the Last—Details of the Execution.

LYONS, Aug. 16.—Cesario, the assassin of President Carnot, was executed at 4:55 o'clock this morning.

At 1 o'clock this morning the police commenced to clear the people away from the vicinity of the prison. When the troops marched to the square in which the execution took place, hardly a score of onlookers were in it. Nobody was permitted to walk the pavement around the prison. Black figures passed through the deserted streets and after an exchange of words with the soldiers, crossed the square to the prison. These were detectives and journalists, who showed their credentials to the prison officials. Only the procureur, the judge, a notary and priest were allowed to enter.

At 3 o'clock in the morning, from a window, not Santo's, a prolonged sigh, followed by the cry, twice repeated, of "Vive l'anarchie," broke the stillness. This was followed by a dead silence. Perhaps it was a signal to warn Santo of his approaching doom.

Just at this moment a wagon arrived from the prison with the guillotine.

The crowd outside the lines at 3 o'clock was small, but from that time it quickly swelled until toward 4 o'clock, the time at which the execution was expected to take place, it had grown to large proportion.

When the preparations of Diebler had been completed he twice tested the guillotine, and pronounced it satisfactory.

It was then 4:35 o'clock. The troops then closed in around the guillotine.

When daylight arrived the square and the streets nearby were thronged with people.

Escorted by a squad of gendarmes, the executioner and his men entered the prison at 4:30 o'clock.

M. Raux, the governor of the prison, awakened Santo, saying to him: "Courage, Santo, the hour has arrived."

The condemned man, with a great effort, raised himself, his face turned livid and his hands and limbs trembled convulsively despite his efforts to appear careless of his fate.

This trembling continued until the last moment. He could hardly stand, and his limbs were so stiff with cold and fright that his clothes were put on him with utmost difficulty.

In reply to the governor, whether he would have breakfast, Santo declined either food or drink. He also refused religious consolation from the priest.

Asked whether he desired to speak to the judge, he replied in the negative. He also declined to see his counsel.

"Have you any last wishes to communicate?" he was asked.

"No," he answered, "only send my letters to my mother."

His shaking increased while he was making his toilet to such an extent that Diebler's men had much trouble in pinioning him.

When Governor Raux spoke to Santo of his mother, the condemned man's eyes filled with tears and he nearly choked with emotion. He soon regained his habitual indifference, although still pallid and trembling.

From this moment he said nothing more.

When he was assisted into the wagon he was in almost pitiful condition. His knees shook together and his teeth chattered violently. He no longer appeared like a man, but a being half dead with terror.

The command of "fix bayonets" was now sounded from squadron to squadron of troops, while murmurings arose from the ever growing crowd.

Diebler and his assistants and the officials issued from the prison at 4:50.

At the command to "present arms," and "draw swords" the wagon issued from the building and took up a place on the left side of the guillotine.

The assistants fixed the gangway. The priest approached Santo, who pretended not to see him.

When Santo appeared, walking with extreme difficulty, his open shirt displaying his breast, frail and bony, his eyes were first fixed on the guillotine and then wandered to the troops and the crowd.

He uttered the cries, "Courage mes camarades," "Vive l'anarchie," but the sound issued feebly from his closed teeth and was scarcely audible beyond the troops. The words were hardly uttered when Santo was seized and pushed toward the basecule. He made a feeble struggle and fell. His weight was much too light and his executioners were compelled to raise him and thrust him forward. He made another frantic movement, obliging Diebler to come to the assistance of his men and place Santo's head under the lunette.

Much time was taken up with these movements. At last Diebler pressed the handle and released the knife. A sharp, short sound announced the severance of the vertebrae, a spurt of blood sprinkled the wagon, the head fell into a basket of sawdust, and the body rolled into another.

Bravoes sounded from the crowd, which seemed less moved than at ordinary executions.

AKRON, O., Aug. 16.—Thomas Weir, a well-to-do citizen, left home several days ago, saying he was going to the equator, and telling his wife she should never see him again. Since that time no trace of him has been found.

CARLISLE'S VIEWS.

The Secretary of the Treasury Tells Something About Our Finances.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The following letter from the secretary of the treasury fully explains itself:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.

Hon. Isham G. Harris, Acting Chairman of the Finance Committee:

DEAR SIR—Your letter advising me that the house of representatives had passed and sent to the senate bills putting sugar, coal, iron ore and barbed wire on the free list and requesting an official statement from you (me) as to the effect that the passage of these bills or either of them would have upon the revenues of the government is received, and in response I have the honor to say that according to the most careful estimates that can be made in the proposed revenue legislation which has passed through congress, the total receipts into the treasury during the current fiscal year will be as follows:

Estimated revenues for fiscal year ending June 30, 1895: From duties on imports, senate bill, including $43,000,000 on sugar, $179,000,000 from internal taxes; whisky, $95,000,000; tobacco, $33,000,000; fermented liquors, $33,000,000; income tax, $15,000,000; oleomargarine, $1,800,000; playing cards, $1,000,000; miscellaneous, $200,000. Total internal taxes, $179,000,000; from sale of public lands and other miscellaneous sources, $20,000,000. Total estimated revenue, $375,000,000.

The estimated receipts for the present year from the proposed tax on incomes and playing cards and the proposed tax of 20 cents per gallon on distilled spirits are, it will be observed, much less than is stated in the various tabulated statements which have heretofore been used in the discussion of these subjects, but I am satisfied the amounts here given are approximately correct.

The proposed income tax will not be payable by the terms of the bill recently passed until on or before July 1, 1895, which is the close of the fiscal year, and it is estimated by the commissioner of internal revenue that, by reason of the large stock on hand, the receipts from the tax on playing cards will not amount to more than $1,000,000 during this year. The estimated increase of receipts on account of the additional tax on distilled spirits during the present year has already been prevented to a great extent by the withdrawal of large quantities of goods from the bonded warehouses and the payment of tax thereon at 90 cents per gallon, and this process is still going on.

The total expenditures during the current fiscal year will be as follows: Civil and miscellaneous, including deficiency in postal revenues, $90,000,000; war, including river and harbor, $85,000,000; navy, including new vessels and armament, $33,000,000; Indians, $10,000,000; pensions, $13,500,000; interests, $30,500,000. Total expenditures $363,000,000. Estimated surplus for year, $15,000,000.

The duty on sugar proposed in the recent bill will, according to importations of that article during the fiscal year, 1894, yield an annual revenue of $43,718,598, and the duties on other articles mentioned in your communication would yield under that bill about $1,000,000; that is to say iron ore, $270,920; coal, $436,149, and barbed wire, fencing wire and wire rods of iron or steel, when imported for the manufacture of barbed wire fencing about $300,000.

It will be seen therefore that if sugar alone is placed upon the free list the expenditures during the present fiscal year will exceed the receipts of the amount of $28,478,058, and if the duties are removed from all the articles specified in your letter, the deficit will be $29,780,780, not including any expenditure on account of the sinking fund or the payment of $2,363,000 of Pacific railroad bonds, which will mature during the fiscal year. In view of the existing and prospective requirements I am of the opinion that it would not be safe to place all the articles enumerated in your letter, or even sugar alone, upon the free list without imposing taxation upon other articles or subjects sufficient to raise an annual revenue of about $30,000,000. I have the honor to be very respectfully yours,

J. G. CARLISLE, Secretary.

The secretary adds the following to his letter.

Note—The bonds of the Pacific railroad guaranteed by the government to the amount of $2,363,000 matured during the present fiscal year, and this is not included in the above estimate of expenditures.

ATTEMPTED TRAIN WRECKAGE.

ELDORADO, Kan., Aug. 16.—An attempt was made to wreck the westbound Missouri Pacific express train, due here at 5:55. At Elder's quarry, about two miles east of the city, a number of huge stone had been placed on the track at a sharp curve. The engineer did not see the obstruction until it was too late. The pilot was smashed and the engine badly damaged, but the train kept the track. Four suspects are under arrest. The motive is not known.

BIG FIRE IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Fire, which caused a loss of about $250,000, broke out yesterday afternoon on the top floor of the 5-story brick building on the corner of Hudson and Thomas streets. The building was occupied by R. C. Williams & Company, wholesale grocers, and the damage to the stock will amount to about $225,000, while the building was damaged to the extent of $25,000. The loss is fully covered by insurance. The cause of the fire is not known.

WILL BRING HIS BODY BACK.

COWES, Aug. 16.—The body of Charles Hill, the seaman of the United States cruiser Chicago, who was killed by a fall from a loft on Saturday as the Prince of Wales was about to board the vessel, on a visit, has been embalmed and will be sent to New York on the steamer Aller. The Prince of Wales has sent a letter to Admiral Erben expressing sincere regret at the death of Hill. The crew of the cruiser have subscribed a fund of $1,500 for the mother of the dead sailor.

LABOR INVESTIGATION

THE PRESIDENT'S STRIKE COMMISSION BEGINS ITS WORK.

A NUMBER OF PEOPLE PRESENT

Vice President Howard of the American Railway Union and Grand Master Workman Sovereign of the Knights of Labor Were the Witnesses Examined—Both Will Be Further Examined.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—The strike commissioners appointed by President Cleveland to investigate the Pullman and railroad strike began their work Wednesday. The sessions were held in the government building, in a courtroom, and attracted many spectators.

After preliminary work Vice President S. W. Howard of the American Railway Union was called as the first witness. Mr. Howard began his statement by expressing the hope that the commission would use every effort to get to the bottom of the matter under consideration. Commissioner Kernan assured him that the investigation would be thorough and asked the witness numerous questions as to his past and present occupations and the nature of his official position in the American Railway Union.

"Now," said the commissioner, "tell us what, in your opinion, caused the railroad strike."

"The strikes were caused," answered Mr. Howard, "by the statement of Mr. general managers that they would back up Mr. Pullman during the strike."

"Who told you that?"

"The newspapers printed the statement crediting it to General Managers Egan and St. John."

Mr. Howard then entered into an exhaustive recital of the troubles leading up to the original Pullman strike. The men had announced their intention to strike, he said, but on being assured by the company's officials that the employees' grievances would be investigated he had urged the men to go back to work. This they did on the promise of the companies, that committees who had handled the trouble would not be discharged, or otherwise injured because of that part they had taken in the matter.

"And after that promise" continued the witness, "three of those committees were discharged. Then the men struck. Our union, after failing to get any satisfaction from the Pullman company then endeavored, by boycotting the company's cars, to bring the matter to a satisfactory termination. We ordered no strike. We simply desired that the Pullman cars be left off of the trains."

"At this point we were again met by the General Managers' association. They refused to haul mailcars unless the Pullmans were attached to the trains. Such action was entirely uncalled for. The Pullmans were in no wise necessary for the transmission of the United States mails. I can cite various cases when mail trains were run without Pullman coaches or other passenger car equipment."

In the afternoon, with Mr. Howard on the stand, Chairman Wright opened the inquiry with a question as to whether the American Railway Union had suggested a strike on all the roads, in order to compel Pullman to come to terms. The witness hesitated a moment and said:

"It was left to the discretion of the employees on each road belonging to the general managers. The resolution of the convention was intended to cover every road connected with the General Managers' association whether it handled Pullmans or not."

"Did you ask all labor unions in this country to strike?"

"No; we asked them to meet us here and consider the matter. At this time the men struck. Our union, after failing to get any satisfaction from the Pullman company then endeavored, by boycotting the company's cars, to bring the matter to a satisfactory termination. We ordered no strike. We simply desired that the Pullman cars be left off of the trains."

"What is the effect on a strike when there is violence and destruction of property?"

"It invariably ends in the defeat of the men because it puts public sympathy against them."

When he was invited to suggest a way of preventing such troubles in the future, Mr. Howard said so far as railroad employees were concerned the only practical solution was in government ownership and operations in railroads.

Mr. Howard said he would like time to consider the question as to what remedy could be applied to labor troubles in the employments outside the railroads. He was accordingly excused and will appear again.

General Master Workman Sovereign of the Knights of Labor followed.

He said he knew little of the grievances of the Illinois Central employees and comparatively little about the Rock Island.

"The American Railway Union and the Knights of Labor," said Mr. Sovereign, "are so closely affiliated that they may be regarded as two divisions of one army. When the trouble came up here the convention at Des Moines considered whether any action should be taken. That was suggested by a circular telegram from Eugene V. Debs. It was left to a vote of the men on each road. The Chicago Great Western men voted to strike because of local grievances, and so did the Rock Island men."

Considering the violence and destruction of property Mr. Sovereign said he believed the burning of cars was the work of United States deputy marshals. He had read information filed with the mayor of Chicago by the police department which justified that belief.

"I do not believe arbitration will avoid such strikes," he said, in conclusion. "Voluntary arbitration is too slow, and compulsory arbitration is not a remedy. I think the laws should recognize a laborer's right—his equity in his position. The employer's equity is in his plant—the product of his plant. The discharged laborer, if discharged without a just cause, should have the right to go into court and establish a claim for damages. The remedy for trouble with railway employees is a government ownership and operation of railroads."

SUPPLEMENTARY TARIFF BILLS.

NOT MUCH HOPE FOR ANY OF THE MEASURES PASSING THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The events of the day did not make clearer the probable result of the effort on the part of the senate to follow the lead of the house in trying to secure the passage of the supplemental tariff bills. The first supposition after Senator Harris offered his motion to refer the bills to the finance committee, was that he was acting for a united party, but it was proven that the Democratic senators were very much divided upon the question. It appears that the Republicans will also divide upon the motion, but a majority of them will oppose it.

The situation may be still further complicated by the withdrawal of the Harris motion. Whether the bills go to the committee or are considered on their merits without reference, they will be bitterly fought. There is no purpose on the part of the senators who are opposing them, to allow a vote to be taken. When the fight begins in earnest the bills will be resisted by every means known to parliamentary tactics—by long speeches, amendments and dilatory motions of all kinds.

Senator Hill's example to amend by repealing the income tax was followed by Senator Quay with amendments which included the entire McKinley law.

Others of a like nature will follow.

The conservatives will move indefinite postponement. They will try to prevent the senators from the western mining states from voting for free sugar by amending the bill so as to provide for free lead ore.

It is thought that the resort to these tactics for a few days will convince all of the inutility at this late day of the effort to pass the bills and that it may be abandoned. They also count upon the speedy disappearance of the quorum. Several Republican senators have left the city and others will follow. Some of the Democratic senators are also preparing to go. Consequently it is predicted that after Friday there will not be a sufficient number of senators in the city to transact business. In that event it is not believed that any effort would be made to compel attendance, but all business except that done by general consent would cease.

BREWERY BURNED.

DETROIT, Aug. 16.—A special to The Tribune from Port Huron says: The big brewery of the Kern Brewing company on River street was totally destroyed by fire last night. The fire was helped by a large amount of ammonia stored in the building which exploded at intervals. A portion of a brick wall fell on William Delaney and George Moss, seriously injuring both. The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss will reach nearly $80,000; partly covered by insurance.

SHOT WHILE ASLEEP.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 16.—The body of an unknown man was found in a cornfield in the river bottoms west of the city, at noon yesterday. A bullet was found in his left cheek, which had been fired through a handkerchief which covered his face. The body was lying on a plank, and the supposition is that the man was asleep when the shot was fired. A leather case containing a razor was lying on his breast. The clothing of the dead man indicates that he was a farmhand.

YOUNG BRIDE AND GROOM.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 16.—William Poe and Miss Mendenhall, daughter of Rev. A. G. Mendenhall, pastor of the Methodist Protestant church at Mooresville, eloped on the 4th inst., and were not heard from until two days ago, when they wrote back home from Kansas that they were married, and were anxious to communicate with the parents. The matter of the elopement had been kept quiet in Mooresville.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 16, 1894.

The tariff bill, passed this week, will no doubt soon become a law. The McKinley bill must go.

ALABAMA Democrats are hardly losing any sleep over Mr. Kolb's wild talk. They know he will subside in a few weeks.

You haven't heard of any Democratic convention yet endorsing Senators Gorman, Smith and Brice, and you are not apt to hear of anything of the sort anyways soon.

AFTER the late Democratic victory in Alabama, the Home Market Club of Boston and Senator Hoar will hardly contribute any more money to corrupt Southern voters.

REPUBLICAN editors are greatly troubled over the condition of the State treasury. Just keep cool. There will be plenty of cash on hand before any Republicans get their hands in the box.

This does settle it. A Republican convention in Maryland has endorsed Senator Gorman's "uniting efforts in behalf of protection." Wonder what the Senator thinks of himself, anyhow?

THE Covington papers announce that the Sunday closing law is being enforced now at Newport for the first time. What have the officials been doing? Laws are no good unless they are enforced.

THE Louisville Post remarks that "if New Jersey, Maryland and Ohio cannot send Democrats in place of Senators Gorman, Smith and Brice, then, by all means, let them send Republicans. Every true Democrat will say amen to this."

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND is stronger than ever with the rank and file of the Democracy. In the Tennessee State convention the mention of his name was greeted with "a wild burst of spontaneous cheers." Grover's all right.

THE Democratic party has some heavy loads to carry, remarks the Richmond, Va., State, which refers to Senator Brice of Ohio, as one of them. The Buckeye Democrats will no doubt do some unloading when they get the next chance at Brice.

HENRY CLEWS, the New York banker and financier, takes a very hopeful view of the business outlook. He says the stock of goods is lower now than it has been for years, and the demand will soon force the factories to resume. Things are already on the mend, and he predicts a general improvement at an early day.

SPEAKING of Kentucky's finances, the Flemington Gazette remarks: "Not another State in the Union is in such straits." Keep posted, Wilt. Don't you know that Governor McKinley is running Ohio now on borrowed money? They are actually talking of calling a special session of the Legislature over there to provide funds to run the State.

SPEAKING of the present price of wheat, the Market Record says: "Too much has been produced in the last few years for the demand, and that is all there is to it." The Record has an entirely different view of the matter from that of the editor of the Ledger. According to our neighbor, the Democratic administration has brought down the price of wheat.

A DISPATCH was sent out of Richmond, Ky., a few days ago stating that G. W. Settle, who was there on a visit, had been run out of Wayne County, this State, for publishing a Republican paper. Like a great many other dispatches sent out nowadays it was untrue. One of the leading Republicans of Wayne County promptly denounced it as false. But it will go the rounds, all the same, and afford Republicans of the North an opportunity to rave and rant over Democratic bulldozing in the South.

A Fatal Mistake.

The BULLETIN'S Choctaw news this week told of the sudden death of Mr. Claude Worrick, but did not give the cause. A special from Flemingsburg says: "He had been spraying tobacco with a solution of paris green, and in returning to the house stopped at a spring to get a drink of water. He had with him a cup which had contained the poison, which he carelessly washed out and used to drink from. Within a few hours he was dead."

THE RUGGLES CAMP MEETING.

It Was One of the Best and Most Successful Ever Held on the Grounds.

No doubt some of the Maysville people have been looking and wondering why they had no notes from Ruggles' camp grounds. Well, it was not because of any lack of interest in the meeting, for in all its past history of twenty years Ruggles' camp grounds had never enjoyed a better or more profitable camp meeting. I mean both spiritually and financially.

Saturday was a day spent in God's service, and the blessed spirit of Christ was manifest in all the meetings of the day. At night Rev. Bivens preached. Brother Holt followed with a powerful exhortation, and the people of God flocked to the altar, and these were followed by a number of persons seeking to be saved. Seven experienced pardon from sin and five joined the church. Then we went to our tents to enjoy a delightful sleep, while the much needed rain came patterning on the roofs. At early dawn we found the sun rising beautifully between the trees, the disagreeable dust all gone, and everybody and everything seemed to be enjoying the opening of a day which seemed to us to have been specially prepared for our camp meeting. Then the great crowds came pouring in at all the gates, and the pike and roads were full of vehicles of every description.

At 10:30 o'clock Rev. Joseph Berry, D.D., of Chicago, preached a telling sermon that will live long in the memories of all who listened to him. Then at 3 o'clock p. m. we gave us an interesting talk on the Epworth League work, and again preached for us at night. At this service there were a number of conversions and several additions to the church.

Monday between services the pastors and all others seemed to be trying how they could best enjoy their stay in this delightful grove. We all enjoyed a joke practiced on our good-natured and clever townsmen, Will Davidson. Some of the young fellows knowing Will's love for hunting got a squirrel skin, stuffed it and placed it in the crutch of a big tree. Then they ran after Davidson to fetch his gun quick. Will went, and the crowd with him, and taking deliberate aim, bang! and while Will looked anxiously for his squirrel to fall, knowing he had surely shot it, the crowd raised the shout and so they yelled and laughed. Davidson saw the joke was on him and he entered into the fun of it with the rest of us.

Monday night Brother Holt preached to us, and when the invitation was given three sisters and a brother presented themselves at the altar, and they, with two or three others, were soundly converted, and there was great rejoicing. The singing was kept up until the bell tapped for "lights out"—bed time.

Tuesday the sunrise prayer meeting was well attended, as well as the 9 o'clock experience meeting. At 10:30 a. m. Rev. John Cheap preached a powerful gospel sermon.

Mrs. John Alexander and family left for Maysville Tuesday, and quite a number of others are preparing to leave.

At 7:30 Rev. Frenger, Presiding Elder, preached to a very large congregation; five or six conversions; several joined church. This dear brother has very much endeared himself to us all, and his manner of conducting the meeting has pleased everybody—preachers and people—and we shall all be anxious to greet him again another year on the camp grounds. May God bless him in all his districts as he has blessed his labors with us on the camp grounds.

PARKS HILL.

Rev. Dr. Miller preached Wednesday morning on "Religious Training of Children." His sermon was one based upon years of practical experience which was corroborated by divine teaching to which he frequently referred. At night he lectured on "Palestine, the Country, Customs and Religions." On Thursday night Dr. Miller will likely close his engagement for this season here. He is an earnest preacher, and will leave many friends in this part of Kentucky.

Rev. Mr. Yonan, the Persian, arrived Tuesday night and conducted the afternoon service Wednesday. Mr. Yonan is being educated at a Presbyterian Seminary in Louisville, and will return to Persia as a missionary to his natives. In his talk Monday afternoon he told much of the customs of the Persians, and said much to inspire the mission workers who heard him.

AN OUTING.

A Feast of Beauty—Pleasure and Instruction Combined—Take in the Excursion Sunday.

The excursion to Oligo-Nunk Sunday will prove more than worth the expenditure of time and money. The scenery is delightful from start to finish, combining the beauties of La Belle Rivier, the Kinnicinnick, the Honeycomb mountains and the wonderful caves of Oligo-Nunk.

Children will especially enjoy this trip. In addition to the pleasure and healthful recreation there will be presented object lessons, teaching in five minutes more than long hours of study of geology could accomplish.

Every convenience necessary to the comfort of the guests is provided on the grounds. Among the arrangements is a pavilion 60x120 feet, in which is a restaurant with excellent service, at which a good meal or lunch can be had at reasonable rates. Tables and chairs are also provided in the pavilion for the use of those taking their own lunch.

Only $1.50 round trip. Tickets on sale at Nelson's.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by J. James Wood.

The Ironton Victors to Play the Regulars This Afternoon and To-morrow.

The Ironton Victors came down this morning and will cross bats with the Regulars this afternoon and to-morrow afternoon. The game this afternoon will be called at 3 o'clock.

The Victors played two games here early this season, losing both games, but the score was close, being 9 to 8 in one game and 8 to 7 in the other. It is said they have been strengthened since then, and the games this afternoon and to-morrow will no doubt prove interesting to lovers of the sport.

Lexington defeated the Shamrocks yesterday by a score of 10 to 9.

Captain Behle, Manager of the Shamrocks, in a conversation after the game here said: "We thought the Maysville team would be "pie" for us when we started up here, but it didn't take us long to find out our mistake. The Regulars have some fine talent and with a week's drilling I could take them and down any amateur team in Kentucky."

There is talk already of organizing a stock company for next season. If possible, grounds will be secured closer to the city, or within the limits, probably. The Barbour & Cochran lot in the Sixth ward has been mentioned as the most desirable location.

QUIETLY WEDDED.

Marriage of City Attorney Chamberlain and Miss Maggie P. Sidwell.

The Christain Church on Lawrence Creek was the scene of a quiet wedding yesterday afternoon.

At the hour of 3 o'clock, the ceremony that united the destinies of Mr. John L. Chamberlain, of this city, and Miss Maggie P. Sidwell, of Tuckahoe, was solemnized, Rev. W. W. Hall officiating.

The happy couple have a wide circle of relatives and many warm friends, and the church was crowded, all joining in hearty congratulations and good wishes to the newly wedded.

After the ceremony the couple drove at once to this city, and left on the 4 o'clock train on their bridal trip.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. W. L. Chamberlain, and is one of Maysville's promising young lawyers, being the present City Attorney. His bride is a most estimable young lady and belongs to one of the county's old families, being a daughter of Mr. John B. Sidwell.

PAID THE PENALTY.

Swift Vengeance Meted Out to Marshall Boston, a Lustful Brute.

The BULLETIN's dispatches yesterday contained an account of the lynching of Marshall Boston, colored, at Frankfort the night before for a fiendish criminal assault, his victim being Mrs. Martin, Nolan an estimable woman whose home is near the State Capitol.

There was no doubt of Boston's guilt. He was fully identified by his victim before he was jailed, and confessed just before he was strung up.

Boston was an ex-convict, having been sent up from this county in 1884 for a term of ten years for rape, his victim in that case being the wife of a colored man named Connor who lived on the Fleming pike, a short distance from Maysville.

Boston went to Connor's home at night with a story that one of Mrs. Connor's relatives out in the country was very sick, and had sent him for her. The woman started with Boston. About a mile from her home, she was assaulted by the fiend.

Boston was arrested, and on the 17th of January, 1884, was indicted for the crime. On the 30th of January he escaped from jail about noon, but was recaptured by Mr. Charles McAuliffe before he had gotten very far away. He was convicted, but the judgement was reversed. In October, 1884, he was again convicted and given a sentence of ten years.

THE offerings of burley tobacco at Cincinnati at the close of the year will probably run close to 103,000 hogsheads. The offerings last year were 79,886 hogsheads. Up to date the offerings are 62,965 hogsheads; rejections, 16,726 hogsheads; actual sales, 46,239 hogsheads, and receipts, 49,318 hogsheads. At the same time last year the offerings were 46,652 hogsheads; rejections, 11,919 hogsheads; actual sales, 34,733 hogsheads, and receipts, 41,671 hogsheads. Considering the general business depression Cincinnati dealers are boasting of the record for 1894.

STARVATION IN COREA.

An Interview With the Minister From the Hermit Kingdom.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Mr. Klopsch of The Christian Herald has just returned from Washington, where he had an interview with Ye Sug Soo, the Corean minister, about his starving countrymen and the best way to help them. Mr. Klopsch said that he asked the minister the cause to which he attributed the present condition of his country.

"Two years ago," the minister responded, "our country had too much rain to raise any crop, and last year we had hardly any rain, with like disastrous effect. This year the Japanese and Chinese invasion took place, when our armies were required in the field. Our people were driven from their homes to the mountains, and the crops all died. As we are principally an agricultural nation, the distress resulting is pitiful. Four out of the eight provinces are affected and more than a million people are facing starvation."

Mr. Klopsch asked if the Corean government had adopted any effective measures for relief.

"Our people are poor," replied the minister, "our country is poor and our government is poor. There is not much we can do for ourselves, but what little could be done has already been done. Food is most urgently required, but that can not be secured here and shipped in time to be of practical value. But almost equally important is seed. Give us seed that we can sow for next year's harvest. If we can get this, permanent relief is almost sure to follow. We can grow almost everything—wheat, oats, beans, barley, corn and rice."

The minister said that a cargo of grain should be shipped from San Francisco to Chemulpo, and that the voyage would occupy about 25 days. He thought he could get friends of Corea to furnish a vessel. He had that morning, he said, received positive assurance at both the Chinese and Japanese legations that if necessary they would provide a convoy for the relief ship. The Corean government would do the proper distribution of supplies. Mr. Klopsch asked whether the present war would not seriously interfere with agricultural pursuits.

"Only temporarily," said the minister. "This war will not last long. The commercial interests of European nations are too great to admit of that."

Mr. Klopsch says he will send out an appeal to the public and as soon as enough grain is secured for a vessel, he will himself go to Corea to see that the supplies are properly distributed.

Has a Grievance Against Germany.

DAYTON, O., Aug. 16.—Information has been received here of the arrest of Joseph Hohn of this city in Hesse Darmstadt, Germany, upon the claim that he left the old country 20 years ago to escape military service. He has been placed in the army to serve three years. Mr. Hohn came here 20 years ago, is a naturalized citizen in successful business and has a wife and children here. The case will at once be brought before the state department at Washington.

Grasshoppers in Tennessee.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 16.—Millions of grasshoppers have taken the field of east Tennessee by storm and are working destruction upon the crops. The insects are now one and a half inches long, but when full growth has attained measure three inches. They are of a reddish color, and as a result the woods are a lurid hue. Residents of the mountains have ceased all other work in the effort to exterminate them.

Lightning's Work.

BURLINGTON, O., Aug. 16.—Lightning struck the big barn of John Spitzpadden here and caused a blaze that destroyed the barn, four horses, two cows, 40 tons of hay, 500 bushels of wheat and the farming implements. Loss, $3,000; no insurance.

Excuse For Being Missing.

AKRON, O., Aug. 16.—Eugene Berendson, Chicago agent of the Akron-Canton stoneware agency, with headquarters in this city, is missing. A shortage of about $15,000 in his accounts is claimed.

Killed by a Bull.

ELKHART, Ind., Aug. 16.—George Markley, a farmer, was killed near here by a bull. The sharp horns of the infuriated brute pierced his thigh, lacerating it to the bone, after which he managed to grasp the ring in the animal's nose and held it so that he could not use the points of his horns. Before his cries brought help, however, he was trampled to death.

Lumbermen Jubilant.

OTTAWA, Aug. 16.—Lumbermen here are jubilant over the prospect of free lumber in the United States. Last year Canada paid over $1,000,000 in duty on lumber and other forest products which will now be admitted free if the president signs the tariff bill.

No Similar Accident on Record.

MUNCIE, Ind., Aug. 16.—While Mrs. W. R. Windsor was pushing her stocking down the right limb just below the knee, her middle finger caught on the flesh, breaking both tendons. The finger had to be split open so that repairs might be made.

Medium Solves a Mystery.

ELWOOD, Ind., Aug. 16.—An Indianapolis medium is said to have solved the mystery of the murder of William Foust, on the strength of which the police will probably make an arrest. According to the medium, a family grudge was the cause.

Female Suffrage Killed.

ALBANY, Aug. 16.—The adverse report of the suffrage committee of the constitutional convention on the proposition to allow the question of woman suffrage to go to the people was agreed to last night by a vote of 97 yeas to 59 nays. This kills the appeal for female suffrage.

Iron Piled on the Track.

WARREN, O., Aug. 16.—While hunting near Warren, Tuesday, Charles Stewart of this city discovered a pile of iron on the Erie railroad, but a few minutes before the arrival of the passenger train No. 67. Two Niles Italians are implicated.

KENTUCKY CROPS.

The Drouth Still Prevails Throughout the Greater Part of the State.

The drouth continues unbroken throughout the greater part of the State. Showers have occurred in many sections, generally light but in a few places sufficient to greatly improve the condition of crops. Complaint is general of the very serious effect upon corn, tobacco and pastures. Many correspondents say that even with a heavy rain in the near future the corn will not improve. The damaging effect of the lack of rain has been greatly increased by the fierce heat that has continued through the week. This has caused the corn and tobacco, in the sections without rain, to fire and wilt.

Pasture lands are needing rain badly, and in some places the water for stock is becoming scarce. All streams and springs are very low and many are entirely without water.

In those sections in which rain has fallen, the crops have materially improved and promise a fair yield, but even in these favored sections, rain is still needed. Late corn is said to be standing the heat and drouth fairly well, and with a good rain will make a fair crop.

Reports from correspondents relative to the condition of the tobacco crop are less encouraging than last week, and it is plainly evident from their tone that general and soaking rains must soon occur to insure even a fair crop. It is difficult to state the exact condition of the crop, for where rains have fallen it is doing well; but such reports are the exceptions.

Hemp appears to be in about the same condition as given in last week's bulletin.

Fall plowing has commenced in many parts of the State. Watermelons are reported to be very good, but the crop will be rather late owing to early detriments to its growth.

The State Sunday-School Convention at Russellville.

On the 28th, 29th and 30th of this month the annual convention of the Kentucky Sunday-school Union will be held at Russellville. A most attractive programme has been arranged, and a very large attendance is expected. Pastors, superintendents, secretaries, teachers and scholars will find something especially helpful to them. Special attention will be given to primary work, and every primary teacher in the State is invited to attend. Miss Mabel Hall, of Chicago, will make several addresses upon this department; Miss Hall has a graded primary class of 450 children in the Sunday-school of which Mr. B. F. Jacobs is the superintendent.

Among the speakers are Mr. William Reynolds, International Field Worker; Rev. S. I. Lindsay, of St. Louis; Revs. Carter Helm, Jones, H. K. Fenner, J. R. Collier, J. W. Turner and T. T. Eaton, of Louisville; Revs. H. C. Settle and J. W. Mitchell, of Hopkinsville; Rev. J. W. Stagg and Wm. R. Wright, of Bowling Green; Rev. John R. Deering, of Versailles; and many others prominent in Sunday-school work.

Delegates will be entertained, and all who expect to attend are requested to send their names to Mr. M. P. Sloss, at Russellville, as soon as possible.

The railroads have made a rate of one for the round trip upon presentation of certificate. These certificates may be secured from the county officers, or from Miss Mamie F. Huber, Secretary, at Louisville.

Sunday-school workers of every denomination are cordially invited to attend.

TARIFF BILL NOT YET SIGNED.

IT IS STILL A QUESTION IF THE PRESIDENT'S SIGNATURE WILL BE ATTACHED.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—It is stated with positiveness by members of congress and others who stand closest to President C. Veland that he will not veto the tar bill. They do not say he has told them so, but they say he talks in a way to make a veto out of the question.

They say the only doubt remaining is as to whether the bill will become a law by the president's signature or will go into effect by limitation without his signature. On this question those best informed say there is nothing definite, the only positive point in their judgment being that the bill will not be vetoed.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
